Department of the Premier and Cabinet

The Ed Tweddell Studio Residency is generously funded by the Department of Premier and Cabinet through Arts South Australia.

SUBMITTING APPLICATIONS

The Ed Tweddell Studio Residency is project based. Applications are assessed on a statement describing a project the applying artist intends to work on during the Residency, images of the applicants work, and their CV.

Applicants must be residents of South Australia.

The applicant must include the following support documents in their application:

1. A Statement no longer than 500 words describing their project and how they intend to use the Ed Tweddell Studio.
2. Up to 10 images of their work. A PDF portfolio is preferable. If images are submitted individually, they must be accompanied by a list detailing title, media, size, and year.
3. A CV.
4. A link to their website or social media.

Files can be no larger than 10MB

All files uploaded must use the following naming convention:

- surname_firstname_statement
- surname_firstname_titleexample (for images), surname_lastname_imagelist (for image details list)
- surname_firstname_portfolio (for a compiled portfolio)
- surname_firstname_cv
